PASTOR'S REFLECTION

During the month of November we reflect upon those who have passed away, our faithful departed. This weekend, we honor all our faithful military veterans who sacrificed so much in service to our country. We honor and remember especially those who gave of their lives, the ultimate sacrifice, for our freedom and the freedom of others over the years. Today, we salute all our veterans, especially those in our Parish. On behalf of a grateful parish and nation, we say “Thank You!”

As we near the end of the Church’s liturgical year, the readings become more eschatological, having to do with the end times. Today’s readings invite us to consider the true meaning of the Resurrection in our lives. Reflecting on the main topic of ‘Resurrection’, throughout today’s gospel, Jesus gives us three beautiful messages.

First, Jesus says Marriage is the need of the present age. Those entering into this status of life should encourage and support each other to attain personal holiness. This will help them to witness the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead.

Second, Jesus gives us insight about what happens to us, through our death, after a meaningful life here on earth. Jesus states, that if we live worthily we will be like an angel and children of God.

Third, Jesus says that the God in whom we are called to believe, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, is not the God of the dead, but of the living. The same God still continues to inspire us through the sacraments and in many others ways. Let us ask the living Eucharistic Lord to inspire us always to seek His will in every moment of our lives. May the Living God continue to inspire you to live in this world as His True Children, to become an Angel and taste His glorious Resurrection after death.

Have a blessed week.

Peace,
Fr. Joji

#GIVINGTUESDAY™

Thanksgiving is fast approaching, as is Giving Tuesday. Spread the word and get excited for this year’s day of giving on Tuesday, December 3rd. The parish focus this year is on the OLC Youth. There are so many opportunities for our youth to strengthen their faith and their relationship with our Lord and Savior.

Are you unable to give on that day? Well do not worry. Starting on November 18th through December 2nd, you can give early to the cause. All money collected for the youth of the parish will remain in the parish. These funds will be used to support our youth going to Steubenville Mid-America Youth Conference, Diocesan Youth Conference and Camp Re-New-All. To Make your donation go to igivecatholic.com, search for OLC parish. This will take you right to our parish site to give and support the youth. If you have any questions please contact Seminarian Nicholas Newton olcseminarian@gmail.com or call the parish office and ask for him.

Bible Study of the Prophet Isaiah resumes this Tuesday morning, November 12th. Session 7 continues with more of Isaiah’s warnings to the nations. The Oracle against the Northern Kingdom of Israel is a prophecy directed to the people who have forgotten the “God of your salvation... the Rock your refuge.” Find out why the Lord orders Isaiah to walk barefoot and naked through Jerusalem and what does the term “On that day” mean. Everyone is welcome to join us Tuesday mornings. It is never too late to join one of our Bible Study classes.
